

Short-form Student Video Submissions

Topics (local content):

- Ethnic history/heritage: Asian American (April), Latino (August), African-American (January), Native American (October)
- Local history
- Agriculture: farming, ranching
- Nature: state/public parks, activities in these parks, conservation, preservation, wildlife
- Environmentalism: recycling, conservation, green projects, climate change
- Impact of KVIE and public television: See KVIE.org/mysource
- Arts & Culture: artist profiles, alternative art, art education (Art topics – August)
- Human interest stories: overcoming adversity, entrepreneurial spirit, volunteerism
- Spanish language: all topics

Video format options:

- DV
 - DVCAM
 - DVCPRO
 - Full-size resolution QuickTime 720x480, uncompressed
- When submitting HD or widescreen material, all visual information (graphics/logos/dates/times/url/etc.) must be within the center three-quarters of the picture.

Duration:

- :25
- :55
- 1:25
- 1:55

Release form: A completed KVIE Release Form must accompany each video submission.

Deadline: Year-round submissions accepted. Optimal dates for some topics listed above.

KVIE Local Productions:

ViewFinder: ViewFinder covers both in-depth treatments of individual topics and episodes that frame the Valley in a larger perspective. KVIE.org/viewfinder

America's Heartland: America's Heartland is a magazine-style, half-hour series with stories from all across the nation about the farmers and ranchers who provide food, fuel and fiber for America. Americasheartland.org

Rob on the Road: KVIE goes more local than ever before! Our new series, Rob on the Road, brings a fresh new experience on the places and people that capture the spirit of what makes California great! KVIE.org/robontheroad

Contact information:

Arcelia Chávez | 916-641-3649 | achavez@kvie.org
KVIE | 2030 W. El Camino Avenue | Sacramento, CA 95833