June 2007 – Show 30

This month on Student DV...

Genevive Didion Elementary School students present a documentary on a samurai warrior.

Center High School explores the world of girls golf

And Will Rogers Middle School shows us the dangers of procrastination.

Child Abuse

The students involved with video production at Barrett Middle School submitted videos on a variety of serious topics ranging from anorexia to the choking game. In this video, Child Abuse, students from Barrett Media Team 3 explore the issue of child abuse in this interesting and thought-provoking docu-drama.
