

Capturing Your Official Student Producer SEVA Interview

SEVA is all about sharing YOUR story.

Submitting your video to the contest is a great start, but it's just part of how you can share your vision with the SEVAs. Your Official SEVA Producer Interview is a vital part of the SEVA program. Your interview could be used during this year's SEVA Award Night Celebration, the upcoming season of SEVA TV, and more! Please help share your interview with us by recording your own interview following the questions below and submit to SECC. The SECC website has more information, including a video guide to help you on your path.

INTRODUCE YOURSELF

1. School Name – What school do you attend?
2. Student Name – Please tell us your name and slowly spell your first and last name.
3. Your Video Intro – “My name is _____ (first name only) _____ and I go to _____ (the name of your school). The name of my video is _____.

YOUR VIDEO

4. Please tell us about your video. What is it about?
5. What do you want viewers to learn from your video?
6. What was the process you went through to make your video?
7. What was your favorite part of making your video?
8. What was your role on the production and what were your responsibilities? (Producer? Videographer? Editor?)
9. What skills do you need to be successful in your role?
10. What was the hardest part of making the video?

YOUR SEVA STUDIO & TEACHER (Make sure the media teacher name is included in statement)

11. Tell us about the video program at your school?
12. What impact has your media teacher made on you and/or your school?
13. What do you like most about your media teacher?

CLOSING THOUGHTS

14. What does video mean to you?
15. How can video make an impact on your friends or in your community?
16. What advice would you give your fellow video student producers who are just starting out?

FINAL QUESTION

17. Is there anything else that you'd like to tell us about your SEVA video/experience?